SUMMARY

Through my experiences as an officer in my county's 4-H leadership club, volunteering in my community, and attending 4-H state events, I have gained the skills to handle heated discussions, spot ways that improvements can be made, and lead groups to reach their best potential. I am ready to teach, lead, listen, and learn more ways that I can benefit others. With these past ten years of growth and opportunities, I can confidently fulfill any role given.
